Understanding adolescence – unmaking bullies

(based on Making Sense of Adolescence and Bullies: their making and unmaking.)

One-day seminar in Stockholm, Sweden, June 14, 2010

Monday, June 14, 2010, 9.00–16.30 at Sjöfartshuset, Skeppsbron 10, Stockholm Old Town, Sweden. The seminar is presented in English.

Gordon Neufeld offers a working model, to manage the challenges with today's children and adolescents in pre-school, school and at home.

The seminar will touch on the following subjects:

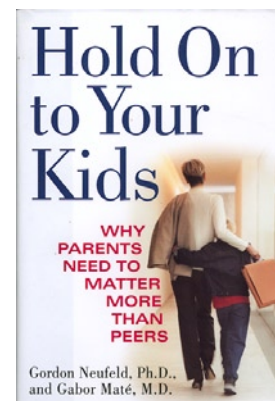

- Why transition to adulthood is so much more difficult today.
- How to help young people grow to their full potential.
- Why more discipline will not stop bullying.
- How to change the context which creates bullies and bullying in school.

The seminar is aimed at everyone working with, or making decisions about, children and adolescents: teachers, psychologists, pre-school teachers, school leaders, politicians – and, of course, parents.

Gordon Neufeld is an internationally acclaimed Canadian psychologist, writer and seminar leader with 35 years of clinical experience working with children and adolescents within all areas from homes, schools to prisons.

Dr. Gordon Neufeld has co-written the widely acclaimed and highly appreciated book "Hold On to Your Kids – why parents need to matter more than peers" together with Gabor Maté, M.D.

Testimonies from Dr. Gordon Neufeld's earlier seminars:

I cannot begin to tell you how very impressed I was by the sheer brilliance and usefulness of your model, and how tremendously grateful I am to you for providing a basis of validity to my instincts as a teacher and a parent.

Finally something I can relate to. I could feel it in my bones. The most refreshing material I have been exposed to in years and years of workshops and seminars.

Dr. Neufeld's originality, passion and commitment in forging a complete and comprehensive theory are refreshing.

Blinding clarity! Some moments transcended knowledge and spoke directly to instinct.

Dr. Neufeld has a rare and unique ability to put the pieces together in a way that makes sense and can be readily understood, regardless of one's level of education or familiarity with the psychological literature.

We are privileged to be in the presence of an independent thinker.

Warmly welcome to this pioneering seminar!
